United States Attorney-at-Law

United States Patent Attorney, Solicitor - Non-practising

Associate

Maria's practice focuses on all aspects of intellectual property protection and enforcement, including prosecution, licensing, litigation, and patentability and infringement opinions. She has experience in a wide range of fields including pharmacology, nanotechnology, immunology, diagnostics, telecommunications and magnetic storage and recording media. Maria also has experience in trade mark prosecution and enforcement.

Maria has worked with clients ranging from emergent start-ups to international corporations to devise strategies for managing and maximizing their intellectual property portfolios.

Maria graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Neuroscience and French in 2002 from the Johns Hopkins University, and received her Juris Doctor in 2006 from the George Washington University Law School in Washington, DC.

Before joining Harrison Goddard Foote in 2009, Maria began her career as an attorney in the United States, where she is a qualified lawyer with membership in both the State of New York and the District of Columbia bars, and is a registered patent attorney before the United States Patent and Trademark Office. In 2009, Maria also qualified as a Solicitor of England and Wales. She is currently working towards qualification as a UK and European Patent Attorney.
